

Generosity: Trust Him for More

James 4:8

Pastor Myron Daum

January 17, 2016

Our Lord desires to have a great relationship with us.

He is not interested in just being acquaintances.

He wants to be close and connected. He wants us to see Him at work in and through our surrendered lives to Him. He also wants us to become like Him. Is there anyone more generous than our God?

His love knows no boundaries. His grace has no borders.

His provision is limitless. So, if we draw close to Him then we should be able to become more generous just like Him. Is there something we can do to draw closer to Him in a practical, financial way?

To become even more generous,

trust Him for more!

What if He allowed more resources to come your way?

How would you respond?

Is it possible He increases our income, not just to increase our standard of living, but rather to increase our standard of giving?

Why are we so excited about Missions at North-Mar Church (NMC)?

Because Jesus is excited about missions!

Matthew 24:14; Matthew 28:18-20

What are we doing in response to this Great Commission from Jesus?

- 1) Praying regularly.
- 2) Preparing missionaries to go to the nations.
- 3) Joining them on short-term trips.
- 4) Giving money to support them and their work.

Can we do more? Our Lord can, through us, if we trust Him for more!

To facilitate trusting Him for more -- take the Missions Faith Step!
