

Written in Stone: #8 "That's Mine"

Exodus 20:15

Pastor Paul Armitage

August 7, 2016

This commandment is one we likely began breaking as children.

Have we stopped breaking it?

Ask yourself: "Am I keeping the 8th Commandment?"

What does #8 forbid?

Taking anything that doesn't belong to you.

Why is stealing a sin against God?

1. Each theft is a failure to trust in His provision.
2. Each theft is an attack on His provision for others.

Contentment is the key!

Where is the positive side of #8?

We are to use what we have been given by God for His glory.

Genesis 2:15; Ephesians 4:28; Matthew 6:19-21

#8 Illustrated from Scripture

Case Study: Achan

Joshua 6-7

- He rationalized it was okay to steal.
- God does not accept rationalizations.
- Your sin will be found out.

Numbers 32:23

Questions to Consider:

- Are you stealing something that you haven't returned?
- Do you lie?
- Do you use money for yourself rather than giving generously to God?
- Can you admit you have been a thief?

By now you have discovered that all roads do not lead to God, and life is not as simple as you once thought. For those who are at this crossroad, the Bible offers a new direction, one filled with purpose, fulfillment, and acceptance. The steps are simple:

1. Recognize that you're a sinner.

You must admit your spiritual need. "There is none righteous, no, not one." (Romans 3:10). We can't make excuses or blame others for our actions. "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23).

2. Recognize that Jesus Christ died on the cross for you.

"For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God..." (1 Peter 3:18). Jesus paid the price for your sin. The apostle Paul said, "...the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me." (Galatians 2:20).

3. Repent of your sins.

The word "repent" means "to change your direction." The Bible tells us, "Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord." (Acts 3:19). God commands us to repent. You must be willing to turn away from the things that displease God.

4. Accept Jesus as your Savior.

Jesus said, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28). It is essential to come to Jesus just as you are. Don't try to "clean up your life" before you come to God. Instead, receive Him and allow Him to do the "cleansing." Jesus said, "All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, And the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out." (John 6:37).
